

CCPRC Public Accessibility Advisory Committee

Charleston County Park and Recreation Commission (CCPRC) would like to welcome members from the community to serve on the Accessibility Advisory Committee. This new committee will be made up of 8-10 representatives from Charleston County and is intended to represent the diversity of disabilities found in our community.

If you are interested, please fill out the application below.

Committee Functions

1. Serve as a bridge between CCPRC and the local community of individuals with disabilities, acting as our advocates in their groups and amongst their peers
2. Advise CCPRC on services, programs, and opportunities for individuals with disabilities that may be lacking in the Charleston community, make recommendations to CCPRC for inclusion
3. Suggest opportunities to educate agency staff and serve as one of our expert resources
4. Visit parks/facilities, programs/events, and navigate agency services (such as visiting our website or registering for a program) to audit accessibility and provide feedback regarding their experiences to appropriate CCPRC staff
